Timber Sold

Roseburg, Ore – The Roseburg District Bureau of Land Management successfully sold two tracts of timber totaling 2,868,000 board feet Tuesday.

The Cat Tracks commercial thinning located in the Swiftwater Resource Area was appraised at $142,395.00 and purchased by Rosboro Lumber Company for $243,557.35. And the Bland Days commercial thinning located in the South River Resource Area was appraised at $147,333.25 and purchased by Scott Timber Company for $233,927.00.

These Commercial thinning's improve the health of forested areas by removing suppressed trees and getting rid of ladder fuels while also assisting the local economy.
